1. Try emphasizing different words in the text as you read taking a verse or phrase of Scripture and turning it like a diamond to examine every facet to think more deeply about the truth revealed each time the diamond is turned.

John 11:25

"I am the resurrection and the life."

etc.

- 2. Formulate a principle from the text: What does it teach? Consider this a type of summary of the passage or chapter. For example, a principle of Luke 8:19-56 might be "Jesus has authority over creation, demons, illness, and even death."
- 3. Look for application of the text by asking yourself "How should I respond to what I have just read? What would God have me do as a result of reading this passage? Make note of your answers.
- 4. Ask yourself, is there a question answered or problem solved by the text? Consider John 11:35, "Jesus wept." How might this apply to the question, is Jesus fully human? If yes, what does it say about His humanity?
